

California Women Elected to the State Assembly

The first four women to serve in the California Assembly were elected in 1918 (the first senator was elected in 1976). In the mid-1970s, female representation began a steady rise with 25 women serving in the 2003 - 04 and 2005 - 06 sessions. Going into the November 2018 election, women had 20 seats in the Assembly. Currently, they have 23.
